The essence of achievement is gratitude.

Thank you to all our volunteers, Campaign Directors and contributors for your gracious efforts to make our 39th Annual Swim With Mike campaign a success, and affording us all the opportunity to further our mission to provide educational scholarships for more outstanding, deserving physically challenged student recipients.

On behalf of all our recipients and their families, we would like to emphasize our appreciation for more outstanding, deserving physically challenged student recipients.

This is why we are able to continue to spread the SWM ripple effect – and we simply could not experience our notable success without this legion of friends who share their heartfelt passion to accomplish our SWM mission.

All this is why we are able to continue to spread the SWM ripple effect – we simply could not experience our notable success without this legion of friends who share their heartfelt passion to accomplish our SWM mission.

We are quite proud of these outstanding individuals, and it is rewarding for us all to see the breadth of reach our program has achieved – we will now have Swim With Mike scholarship recipients at 49 universities nationwide this year. And, the totals since our 1981 inception are 254 scholarship recipients at 134 universities nationwide — thanks to all of you.
What a great day for Swim With Mike! Our current and alum scholarship recipients, their families and friends, donors, volunteers and community friends joined us at the Uytengsu Aquatics Center for a terrific day of celebration and acknowledgement.

The day’s activities included our Masters Swim Workout, Swim Clinic, Raffles and Silent Auction, Diving Exhibition, The Biggest Splash Contest, BBQ, Football Player/Song Girl Relay, Wheelchair Basketball Championship Game, and of course Traveler, the Trojan Marching Band, Song Girls and Spirit Squad. How could all that NOT be fun?

A very special highlight of the day was our annual recognition ceremony where we heard from two of our graduating SWM scholarship recipients and our 13th Annual Claire Snow Volunteer of the Year Award recipient, Yvonne Bogdanovich. Upon receiving her award, she told us of her gratitude for her rewarding experiences as a SWM volunteer, and how much each and every scholarship recipient means to her. Yvonne’s loyal dedication to SWM is legendary and we are so very appreciative of her devotion to our mission.

Jack Jablonski shared how his amazing time at USC impacted his personal, education and professional life. See more about Jack on page 7.

Molly Fausone (University of Michigan Medicine, 2019; Stanford University BS Human Biology, 2012) was thrilled to share her inaugural USC SWM event experience. She expressed her profound appreciation to Swim With Mike for the 11 years of scholarship support. Her experiences in both undergrad and post grad studies have allowed her to pursue her dreams of medical school and achieve her goals as one of our scholarship recipients.

“I am absolutely thrilled to be at the famous USC Swim With Mike event for the first time this year – what an amazing event! It was especially fun to meet my fellow SWM scholarship recipients and learn how much we all have in common. Also fun to introduce my family to everyone and share our hard fought accomplishments. The future before me is full of the promise of rewards and success, and simply put, Swim With Mike made it all possible. I am forever grateful.”

Our recognition ceremony brings it home to all of us and truly renews our faith in the goals of our mission. Thank you again to all our friends who make this day – and the incredible outcomes – a possibility.
Oscar Mendoza (1929 - 2019) was everyone’s friend, and an especially generous and loyal friend to Swim With Mike. He was with us from the start in 1981, and initiated our famous BBQ offering that is a highlight of each annual celebration. His efforts over the years have been legendary.

Each and every year, Oscar would recruit volunteers to help out at the BBQ, and the majority of them were his family members – his wife, Rebecca, his children and grandchildren, uncles and cousins – who also deserve our appreciation.

Oscar worked all year round to get food and beverages donated to cook and serve at the BBQ. Just think of all the chicken, beef, baked beans, salads and drinks that were consumed over his many years of volunteering for Swim With Mike! All this while he was a full-time USC employee running the iconic Faculty Center. In fact, the Faculty Center staff adopted SWM as a community service to give back to students.

Oscar was our inaugural SWM Claire Snow Volunteer of the Year Awardee in 2007, setting the high bar for those to follow. In 2009, the new USC University Club honored Oscar with the “Oscar Mendoza Fountain and Courtyard”, and he received the USC Staff Club Member of the Year Award in 2008.

In Oscar’s memory, SWM hosted a Memorial Reception at the USC Uytengsu Aquatics Center. His family and friends gathered to remember our wonderful, gracious friend. He will always remain in our hearts.

“Remembering Oscar
Mike Nyeholt with Oscar Mendoza on the pool deck at a Swim With Mike event. Oscar supervised the barbeque at each year’s event for many years, setting a high bar for all who would follow.

“I would say that our success is because of volunteers like Oscar and Rebecca Mendoza. Since the very beginning, we have never had to ask Oscar if he would be willing to cook for the 1,500-2,000 participants, donors and volunteers. In addition, he gets all the food donated from his various friends in the food and beverage business. He recruits the volunteer cooks and servers and we do not have to worry about anything. Everyone looks forward to the “Oscar BBQ” including the entire football team following their Spring Practice and Swim With Mike.”

Jack Jablonski
NHL was always the goal

“All this is because Swim With Mike has afforded me the opportunity to attend USC and intern with the Kings for the past four years. With just one more semester left of classes to finish up my degree I am now in the process of working with the Kings to finalize a full-time job. Hockey has always been my goal, and will always be in my life. The opportunity with the Kings is part of that long-term goal.”

– Jack Jablonski

He was on track to reach his goal of playing in the NHL as a high school sophomore playing varsity ice hockey at the legendary Benilde-St. Margaret High School. His coaches projected him to be a Division I college prospect. Ice hockey is a big deal in Minnesota, and Jack and his school were the biggest of deals in 2011.

Then, it happened, December 30, 2011. In a rivalry game, Jack was hit by two opponents with a retaliatory hit of elbows to the neck. He crashed down onto the ice and lay motionless. His parents and teammates rushed to his side and Jack said, “Dad, I can’t feel my legs, I can’t feel anything.” He had severed his spinal cord and fractured two vertebra. Physicians at the emergency room told his parents, Leslie and Mike, that Jack could be a paraplegic, but most likely a quadriplegic for the rest of his life.

His condition was soon a fire and stirred

Jack has held on to his passion for ice hockey; it continues to motivate him. He has been an intern at the Los Angeles Kings for four years, where he works in public relations and on the Kings podcast. This internship has led to a full-time opportunity when Jack finishes up and receives his Communications degree from USC later this year.

Raising Funds and Awareness for Swim With Mike

Katie Pasichuke (USC International Relations, Global Business, Spring 2020) gathered her friends, classmates, fellow Kappa Alpha Thetas and USC Panhellenic members to celebrate Swim With Mike at Rock & Reilly’s in USC University Village. A crowd of about 150 joined in the fun and raised a healthy amount of newfound awareness and support for SWM.

“Lots of USC athletes and Greek members were in attendance to support my 5-10pm fundraiser! I advertised to lots of sororities and fraternities through social media leading up to the day, and so many came to meet me for both after-class dinner and drinks later.”

Thanks to Katie, her friends and the good will of Rock & Reilly’s management for sponsoring this event and for their generous 20% donation of the evening’s proceeds.

Swim With Mike alum and new Board member Natalie Buchoz (USC Public Relations 2015) organized her Fourth Annual Spin With Mike Karma Ride at Costa Mesa’s Gritcycle. The highly anticipated event was again sold out within an hour after the event details were announced.

Natalie’s fellow Swim With Mike alum Marty O’Connor (Chapman MBA 2017) came along for the ride, and gave an inspirational message to the group about how much Swim With Mike has helped him to achieve his goals.

This year’s Swim With Mike Wheelchair Basketball Tournament boasted six teams of five players each. Competition started Friday of USC SWM Week with elimination games. Participating teams included USC Rec Sports, Phi Kappa Tau, Women’s Club Basketball, USC Helenes, Team SWM and Team Rohan.

After a delicious Jersey Mike’s lunch, the Tournament tipped off at noon in the Lyon Rec Center. A wildly spirited afternoon of competition whittled the contest down to two teams to meet for the championship.

In an epic game, Team Rohan and Team SWM battled back and forth for the victory. Ultimately, Team Rohan prevailed in the game’s final seconds, 40-39!

A grateful thank you to our presenting sponsor – UBS – for three years of helping us expand this exciting event. Clearly, UBS’s investment is providing rewarding returns to us all.

We would also like to thank student volunteer Miles Kay, his dedicated committee members and USC Rec Sports for their tremendously successful efforts to arrange for donated adaptive wheelchairs and for the transport to/from USC for the tournament.

Recipient Natalie Buchoz, who organized the fourth Annual Spin With Mike Karma Ride, with fellow SWM scholarship alum Marty O’Connor, who delivered an inspirational message about how Swim With Mike has helped him to achieve his goals.

Final Game Brings on the HEAT!

Joining Team Rohan was scholarship recipient Tommy Venos (University of Alabama, Kinesiology 2022), who flew in to play in our tournament after playing with his Alabama team to win the 2019 National Wheelchair Basketball Championship.

Your support activities make us stronger and allow us to share our SWM mission with more outstanding scholarship recipients each academic year. Campaign Directors can create any sort of activity they choose to raise support for their campaign. Your campaign does not need to be a large, complicated event...how about getting sponsors to support you for a few laps in the pool, walks around the block, walking your dog? How about skipping the fancy coffee and put that amount in a SWM CD piggy bank? Each and every dollar counts.
Your campaign can all be done online and promoted through social media. Join us today at www.swimwithmike.org to register – see you there!
Our San Diego friends and volunteers led by Betsy and Mike Thomas and Nancy Phillips always offer a jam-packed day of fun and fundraising. And, they did it again at their ninth Annual Swim With Mike event at the UCSD Aquatics Center.

The day’s activities were kicked off with the UCSD Masters Swim Team workout, followed by their Famous Pancake Breakfast, always a crowd favorite! Pool activities included a Diving Demonstration by Dive San Diego, an appearance by Surf Dogs Cori and Richochet, a Wacky Relay Race, the Biggest Splash Contest and Kayak jousting.

We were happy to see our local Swim With Mike Scholarship Recipients, Blake Steinecke (USC San Marcos, Business 2021), Spencer Fox (USC Materials Engineering MS 2019), Beatrice Lasnier deLavalette (USD Entrepreneurial Business 2022), Jonathan Jimenez (San Diego State, Marketing 2020), Kie Fujii (Seton Hall, MD 2025), Jennifer McCallson (USC MSW 2017), Tyler Warnock (USC Entertainment Management 2009 and 2011, B.A., M.A.) and Jessica Duhon Rodriguez (Concordia University, Health and Human Performance PhD, 2020). As each was introduced, they shared a little bit about what they are currently doing and their plans going forward – which was very inspirational and informative for the crowd.

We met two future SWM scholarship recipients in Sam Hussin and Alex Ruiz. The two high school football players each experienced a debilitating leg injury this year while playing in a football game with their respective high school teams. They each found SWM and discovered the strength of the relationships between recipients. Sam and Alex met each of our scholarship recipients in attendance, and discovered the boundless support of SWM, the support you just cannot put a price on.

A bountiful silent auction and raffle attracted quite a bit of activity as guests generously participated in support of the Swim With Mike program.

The Ninth Annual Swim-A-Thon at the Rose Bowl Aquatics Center kicked off their “Swim With Mike Week” of fundraising leading up to the 39th Annual USC SWM event at the Uytengsu Aquatics Center.

Head Masters Swim Team Coach Chad Durieux leads the way and encourages swimmers of all ages to “swim in the morning, at lunch or in the evening – whenever it is convenient. Bring your school group, club or even swim with the Masters Swim Team! Reduce stress, get in shape and help a worthy cause at the same time!”

Participants were encouraged to obtain sponsors who may pledge a flat rate or an amount per lap with no minimum required. Those who raise a minimum of $50 received a BBQ ticket for the USC SWM event, and those who raised $100 or more received a Nike goodie bag filled with special items, including gift certificates and commemorative items.

The Rose Bowl Aquatics event raised $10,000 for our 39th Annual Swim With Mike and Kurt Knop, President/Executive Director of the RBAC, tells us “Mike’s story and commitment to helping others is remarkable. It’s an honor to support his worthy cause, especially as he is a longtime RBAC lap swimmer. I know that all members of the RBAC community look forward to participating every year to help this great effort.”

Culminating the RBAC SWM Week is an annual Friday morning event, where swimmers glide through a full 10,000 meter workout in which all swimmers are welcome. Then, Saturday morning is USC Swim With Mike day and Coach Durieux brings his team to our Masters Workout and Famous Pancake Breakfast.

We are incredibly grateful to our many friends at the Rose Bowl Aquatics Center and their dedicated support of SWM over the years.

“Swim With Mike is an amazing charity that we at the Rose Bowl have been privileged to be part of for the past nine years. I have met personally with many of the recipients and have been impressed and inspired to help these youths in their pursuit of excellence. I hope that through our diligent service we can build up a continuing foundation of hope and fraternity for these students.”
